CURRENTLY GUIDING THE DESTINY OF LODGE NO. 896

As with most things, change is the order of the day in Elkdom. Officers, Trustees and Committee Chairmen come and go. Each serves the Lodge to the best of his capabilities. Currently serving are the Officers on this page.

As most of the construction of our new Temple was during Patrick Lee's term as Exalted Ruler, we proudly place his photo on this page.

Grand Trustee Joseph A. McArthur can hardly be considered a current officer of Lodge 896. He is, however, a member of the Grand Lodge Family, currently serving as Vice-Chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees. Despite his many Grand Lodge and personal obligations, he has always found time over the years to be a source of counsel and inspiration to the Officers and Exalted Rulers of Lewiston Lodge 896. Brother Joe has served on the Building Committee for our new Temple and as we dedicate this new facility there is no prouder Elk than Grand Trustee J. A. McArthur.
